

SANMINA-SCI

Sanmina-SCI, a Fortune 500 Company headquartered in San Jose, California, is a leading Electronics Manufacturing Services (EMS) provider focused on delivering complete end-to-end manufacturing solutions to technology companies around the world. Our service offerings include innovative product design and engineering, test solutions, manufacturing, logistics and post-manufacturing repair/warranty services. Recognized as a technology leader with major global operations in over 18 countries and on four continents, we deliver customized and flexible solutions from design and engineering to individual components and complete systems. With an impressive global footprint and world-class manufacturing services, Sanmina-SCI continues to grow as leader in the EMS industry. Sanmina-SCI is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Sanmina-SCI offers comprehensive benefits because we care about the quality and balance of our employees' lives. We invite you to learn more about our opportunities at Sanmina-SCI.

The Sr. Treasury Analyst will be responsible for providing support in several key areas of the Corporate Treasury Department including Financial Modeling, Debt Compliance, Cash Management, Foreign Exchange and Insurance. This person will develop / maintain financial models to forecast the Company's cash / liquidity position and debt covenants under the direction of Assistant Treasurer. This person will provide back-up to Cash Manager for daily wires and other cash management duties as well as provide back-up to FX Manager for monthly hedging activities. In addition, this person will provide support in gathering key insurance renewal information. Finally, this person will provide ad-hoc support for other Treasury department projects.

Qualifications Required:

- Position requires an undergraduate degree in Finance, Accounting or equivalent.
- An MBA or CPA is desired.
- Person should have 5 years of financial background and experience in Treasury or Treasury related areas that they will be responsible for supporting
- Financial modeling experience highly desired
- Strong Excel skills

Sanmina-SCI
2700 N. First St.
San Jose, CA 95134

Contact:
Uyen Tran
Sr. Corporate Recruiter
uyen.tran@sanmina-sci.com
916-647-7157